

NJ FARM FACTS

New Jersey grows more than 100 different varieties of fruits, vegetables and herbs and is ranked nationally in the top 10 as producer of such items as blueberries, peaches, bell peppers, squash, tomatoes and cranberries.

NEW JERSEY AGRICULTURE STATISTICS

9,000	farms
720,000	acres of farming
226,207	acres of preserved farmland (as of 3/6/16)
$1.043B	in cash receipts (as of 2015)

LEADING NEW JERSEY AGRICULTURE SECTORS

$367M	in fruit and vegetables
$355.7M	in nursery/ greenhouse/sod
$93.3M	in field crops
$65.7M	in poultry and eggs
$46M	in equine
$22M	in dairy